Explanation of changes to your 2022 Form 1040

Form W-2 or 1099 not received

The income reported on your return doesn't match the documents we received from your employer or payers. The law requires you to accurately report all income you receive. If your employers don't send proper information documents or forms (for example, Form W-2, Wage and Tax Statement, Form 1099), you must estimate your income based on your paycheck stubs, bank statements, or other records and include your estimate on your tax return.

Qualified business income deduction

The proposed changes made to your taxable income may affect the qualified business income deduction claimed. If you believe an adjustment to the qualified business income deduction is necessary and need additional information, see Instructions for Form 8995-A, Qualified Business Income Deduction or Publication 535, Business Expenses.

Child Tax Credit or Credit for Other Dependents

The allowable amount of the Child Tax Credit or Credit for Other Dependents is based on your filing status, the number of qualifying persons, your modified adjusted gross income and tax. Either credit is adjusted when your modified adjusted gross income changes. The credit can't be more than the tax.

If you filed and claimed credits for mortgage interest, adoption credit, residential clean energy credit or the District of Columbia first-time homebuyer credit with your original tax return, send us recomputed worksheets from Form 1040 schedule 8812 Credits for Qualifying Children and other Dependents. To apply any unused credits from these sources, send us the recomputed forms. If you've already applied these unused credits to any other tax years, you need to file a Form 1040X, Amended U.S. Individual Tax Return, for the other years.

If you haven't filed the tax return for the affected period, send us a signed statement that you've corrected your records.

Self-Employment Tax on Self-Employment (SE) Income

We computed the self-employment (SE) tax on the net SE income from your reported and underreported SE income. SE income generally includes nonemployee compensation, merchant card payments, third-party network payments, and other income from part-time or full-time work. Net earnings from SE income are subject to SE tax.

SE tax consists of Social Security tax of 12.4% and Medicare tax of 2.9% and, for SE income more than the thresholds for your filing status, an additional Medicare tax of 0.9%. Even if you paid the maximum amount of Social Security tax, you're still liable for Medicare tax and additional Medicare tax if you're over the applicable threshold. The deductible part of the SE tax is based on the change we made to your SE tax. If you were an employee, you're liable for income tax and the employee's share of Social Security (6.2%), Medicare taxes (1.45%), and additional Medicare tax, if applicable. We'll credit your Social Security account with the amount of SE income shown on this notice. See Form 1040, Schedule SE, Self-Employment Tax, for more information.

Earned Income Credit

Changes to your adjusted gross income (AGI) will affect your allowable Earned Income Credit. The Earned Income Credit is based on your earned income and AGI, both of which must be less than:

- $16,480 with no qualifying child ($22,610 for married filing jointly),
- $43,492 with one qualifying child ($49,622 for married filing jointly) or
- $49,399 with two qualifying children ($55,529 for married filing jointly) or
- $53,057 with more than two qualifying children ($59,187 for married filing jointly).

Additional Child Tax Credit adjusted - Schedule 8812

Based on the proposed change to your income and tax, we adjusted the allowable amount of Additional Child Tax Credit.

Power Of Attorney

We sent a copy of this notice to your representative as shown in your Power of Attorney.

Next steps

If you agree with our proposed changes, send us your signed Response form so we receive it by the due date of this notice. After you receive the billing notice showing we've adjusted your account, you can use the following online payment options:

- Visit IRS.gov/payments for information about online payment options including:
 - Pre-assessed installments and payment agreements
 - Payroll deductions
 - Credit card payments
 - Direct debit payments
 - Applicable fees
- To apply for an installment agreement plan by mail, send in your signed Response form AND a completed Form 9465, Installment Agreement Request.

If the same error occurred in another tax year, file a Form 1040X for that tax year.

We send information about these changes to state and local tax agencies. If the changes we made to your federal tax return also impact your state or local tax return, file an amended state or local tax return as soon as possible.

Interest charges

We are required by law to charge interest when you do not pay your liability on time. Generally, we calculate interest from the due date of your return (regardless of extensions) until you pay the amount you owe in full, including accrued interest and any penalty charges. Interest on some penalties accrues from the date we notify you of the penalty until it is paid in full. Interest on other penalties, such as failure to file a tax return, starts from the due date or extended due date of the return. Interest rates are variable and may change quarterly. (Internal Revenue Code Section 6601)

Interest is calculated to 30 days from the date of the notice for domestic addresses and 60 days from the date of the notice for foreign and APO/FPO/DPO addresses. Interest will continue to accrue until you pay the amount you owe in full.
