Explanation of changes to your 2022 Form 1040

This section tells you specifically what income information the IRS received about you from others (including your employers, banks, mortgage holders, etc.). This information doesn't match the information you reported on your tax return.

Use the table to compare the data the IRS received from others to the information you reported on your tax return to understand where the difference(s) occurred. To assist you in reviewing your income amounts, the table may include both reported and unreported amounts.

Documentation Upload Tool (DUT)

Send us your documents using the Documentation Upload Tool within 30 days from the date of this notice. To use the tool, visit IRS.gov/dutreply and enter access code 895ny-k9654.

Unlocated interest, dividends, or capital gain amounts

Your tax return doesn't include payer names for interest, dividends, or capital gains distributions. We can't match the amounts payers reported to us, which we've included in this notice. We allowed credit for the total amount included on your tax return. If this is incorrect, send us a list of specific amounts of interest, dividends, or capital gain distributions you received, along with the name of each payer and the type of income.

Payment card and third-party network transactions

You received Form 1099-K, Payment Card and Third-Party Network Transactions, because you accepted merchant cards for payments, or because you received payments through a third-party network. The amount included on this notice for Form 1099-K reflects the gross reportable transaction amount and not the taxable amount of merchant card and third-party network payments. The taxable amount from Form 1099-K should be reported on your Form 1040 Schedule C, Schedule E or Schedule F.

Misidentified income

If any of the income shown on this notice isn't yours, send us the name, address, and taxpayer identification number of the person who received the income. To prevent future incorrect reporting to the IRS, notify the payer to adjust their records to show the correct name and taxpayer identification number.

Form W-2 or 1099 not received

The income reported on your return doesn't match the documents we received from your employer or payers. The law requires you to accurately report all income you receive. If your employers don't send proper information documents or forms (for example, Form W-2, Wage and Tax Statement, Form 1099), you must estimate your income based on your paycheck stubs, bank statements, or other records and include your estimate on your tax return.

Excess advance premium tax credit repayment

We adjusted your excess advance premium tax credit repayment based on proposed changes to your modified adjusted gross income.

Child Tax Credit or Credit for Other Dependents

The allowable amount of the Child Tax Credit or Credit for Other Dependents is based on your filing status, the number of qualifying persons, your modified adjusted gross income and tax. Either credit is adjusted when your modified adjusted gross income changes. The credit can't be more than the tax.

If you filed and claimed credits for mortgage interest, adoption credit, residential clean energy credit or the District of Columbia first-time homebuyer credit with your original tax return, send us recomputed worksheets from Form 1040 schedule 8812 Credits for Qualifying Children and other Dependents. To apply any unused credits from these sources, send us the recomputed forms. If you've already applied these unused credits to any other tax years, you need to file a Form 1040X, Amended U.S. Individual Tax Return, for the other years.

If you haven't filed the tax return for the affected period, send us a signed statement that you've corrected your records.

Earned Income Credit

Changes to your adjusted gross income (AGI) will affect your allowable Earned Income Credit. The Earned Income Credit is based on your earned income and AGI, both of which must be less than:

- $16,480 with no qualifying child ($22,610 for married filing jointly),
- $43,492 with one qualifying child ($49,622 for married filing jointly) or
- $49,399 with two qualifying children ($55,529 for married filing jointly) or
- $53,057 with more than two qualifying children ($59,187 for married filing jointly).

Additional Child Tax Credit disallowed

In our proposed changes, we included the full amount of Child Tax Credit for your filing status and modified your adjusted gross income. Therefore, you're no longer eligible for the Additional Child Tax Credit.

Power Of Attorney

We sent a copy of this notice to your representative as shown in your Power of Attorney.

Next steps

If you agree with our proposed changes, send us your signed Response form so we receive it by the due date of this notice. After you receive the billing notice showing we've adjusted your account, you can use the following online payment options:

- Visit IRS.gov/payments for information about online payment options including:
  - Pre-assessed installments and payment agreements
  - Payroll deductions
  - Credit card payments
  - Direct debit payments
  - Applicable fees
- To apply for an installment agreement plan by mail, send in your signed Response form AND a completed Form 9465, Installment Agreement Request.

If the same error occurred in another tax year, file a Form 1040X for that tax year.

We send information about these changes to state and local tax agencies. If the changes we made to your federal tax return also impact your state or local tax return, file an amended state or local tax return as soon as possible.

Penalties

We are required by law to charge any applicable penalties.

Substantial tax understatement

Description	Amount
Accuracy-related penalty substantial understatement of tax - IRC 6662(b)(2); 6662(d)	$1,048

If you understate your tax liability and the understatement is more than the greater of 10 percent of your correct tax liability or $5,000, an accuracy-related penalty generally applies for the substantial understatement of tax. The penalty is 20 percent of the portion of the underpayment of tax attributable to the substantial understatement of income tax.

We may reduce or eliminate the penalty if you send a signed statement with one of the following:

- Facts that support your treatment of the understated income and the authority for your position, such as the Internal Revenue Code, Treasury Regulations, Revenue Rulings, Revenue Procedures, etc. or
- An explanation showing you clearly disclosed the item, such as by attaching Form 8275, Disclosure Statement, or Form 8275-R, Regulation Disclosure Statement and there is a reasonable basis for your position.

Interest charges

We are required by law to charge interest when you do not pay your liability on time. Generally, we calculate interest from the due date of your return (regardless of extensions) until you pay the amount you owe in full, including accrued interest and any penalty charges. Interest on some penalties accrues from the date we notify you of the penalty until it is paid in full. Interest on other penalties, such as failure to file a tax return, starts from the due date or extended due date of the return. Interest rates are variable and may change quarterly. (Internal Revenue Code Section 6601)

Interest is calculated to 30 days from the date of the notice for domestic addresses and 60 days from the date of the notice for foreign and APO/FPO/DPO addresses. Interest will continue to accrue until you pay the amount you owe in full.

Description	Amount
Total Interest	$603

The table below shows the rates used to calculate the interest on your unpaid amount from the date the tax return was due until the tax is paid in full. For a detailed calculation of your interest, call 1-800-829-8310.

Period	Interest rate
