Explanation of changes to your 2021 Form 1040

This section tells you specifically what income information the IRS received about you from others (including your employers, banks, mortgage holders, etc.). This information doesn't match the information you reported on your tax return.

Use the table to compare the data the IRS received from others to the information you reported on your tax return to understand where the difference(s) occurred. To assist you in reviewing your income amounts, the table may include both reported and unreported amounts.

Retirement distributions

We couldn't identify the retirement distribution reported on your return based solely on information your payers reported to us. We need to know if the reported income is a part of a pension or an annuity.

If it's a pension or an annuity, and you're recovering your after-tax contributions using the Simplified Method or General Rule, send us a signed statement with the date of your first payment, the amount you receive monthly, and the total amount you contributed.

If it's not a pension or annuity, send us a copy of the document showing the gross and non-taxable amount of the distribution you received.

If all or part of the distribution was rolled over, send us Form 5498, IRA Contribution Information or similar documentation showing a rollover.

Misidentified income

If any of the income shown on this notice isn't yours, send us the name, address, and taxpayer identification number of the person who received the income. To prevent future incorrect reporting to the IRS, notify the payer to adjust their records to show the correct name and taxpayer identification number.

Form W-2 or 1099 not received

The income reported on your return doesn't match the documents we received from your employer or payers. The law requires you to accurately report all income you receive. If your employers don't send proper information documents or forms (for example, Form W-2, Wage and Tax Statement, Form 1099), you must estimate your income based on your paycheck stubs, bank statements, or other records and include your estimate on your tax return.

Income unrelated to identity theft claim

We reviewed the identity theft claim present on your account. The income items shown in this notice do not appear to be related to your identity theft claim.

10% additional tax on premature distributions from a qualified retirement plan

Early distributions from a qualified retirement plan, including IRAs, are generally subject to an additional 10% tax. A distribution is early if you withdrew or used qualified retirement plan assets before you reached age 59 1/2. Exceptions may apply. Refer to Publication 17, Your Federal Income Tax (for Individuals), or Publication 590-B, Distributions from Individual Retirement Arrangements (IRAs). If the distributions listed on our previous notice are exempt from the additional 10% tax, send us a signed explanation or a completed Form 5329, Additional Taxes on Qualified Plans (Including IRAs) and Other Tax-Favored Accounts.

Underclaimed withholding

You may be entitled to a larger deduction for income tax withholding or additional Medicare tax withholding than the amount you claimed on your tax return. Compare the payer information provided in this notice with your records. If the information is incorrect, send us a statement so we can correct our records. If the information is correct, respond to this notice so we can adjust your account.

Penalties

We are required by law to charge any applicable penalties.

Substantial tax understatement

Description	Amount
Accuracy-related penalty substantial understatement of tax - IRC 6662(b)(2); 6662(d)	$4,124

If you understate your tax liability and the understatement is more than the greater of 10 percent of your correct tax liability or $5,000, an accuracy-related penalty generally applies for the substantial understatement of tax. The penalty is 20 percent of the portion of the underpayment of tax attributable to the substantial understatement of income tax.

We may reduce or eliminate the penalty if you send a signed statement with one of the following:

- Facts that support your treatment of the understated income and the authority for your position, such as the Internal Revenue Code, Treasury Regulations, Revenue Rulings, Revenue Procedures, etc. or
- An explanation showing you clearly disclosed the item, such as by attaching Form 8275, Disclosure Statement, or Form 8275-R, Regulation Disclosure Statement and there is a reasonable basis for your position.

Interest charges

We are required by law to charge interest when you do not pay your liability on time. Generally, we calculate interest from the due date of your return (regardless of extensions) until you pay the amount you owe in full, including accrued interest and any penalty charges. Interest on some penalties accrues from the date we notify you of the penalty until it is paid in full. Interest on other penalties, such as failure to file a tax return, starts from the due date or extended due date of the return. Interest rates are variable and may change quarterly. (Internal Revenue Code Section 6601)

Interest is calculated to 30 days from the date of the notice for domestic addresses and 60 days from the date of the notice for foreign and APO/FPO/DPO addresses. Interest will continue to accrue until you pay the amount you owe in full.

Description	Amount
Total Interest	$2,091

The table below shows the rates used to calculate the interest on your unpaid amount from the date the tax return was due until the tax is paid in full. For a detailed calculation of your interest, call 1-800-829-8310.

Period	Interest rate
April 1, 2022 through June 30, 2022	4%
July 1, 2022 through September 30, 2022	5%
October 1, 2022 through December 31, 2022	6%
January 1, 2023 through March 31, 2023	7%
